ABSTRACT

This reference circular lists titles and sources of audiovisual materials on visual and physical disabilities. It also includes topics such as accessibility, assistive technology, education, employment, and recreation as they relate to disabilities. The information is compiled from catalogs and descriptive brochures from producers, distributors, and organizations in the United States. The titles are arranged alphabetically under broad subject headings, and each entry includes, where available, the year of production, length, price for purchase or rental, and additional sources. When a number of titles is available from one source, the source rather than the titles is provided. (Author/AEF)

Introduction

This reference circular lists titles and sources of audiovisual materials on visual and physical disabilities. It also includes topics such as accessibility, assistive technology, education, employment, and recreation as they relate to disabilities. The information is compiled from catalogs and descriptive brochures from producers, distributors, and organizations in the United States. It is not an evaluative listing and is not limited to a specific time period. It does not include medical diagnosis or treatment of specific disabilities.

The titles are arranged alphabetically under broad subject headings, and each entry includes, where available, the year of production, length, price for purchase or rental, and source. When a number of titles is available from one source, the source rather than the titles is provided. The prices listed are subject to change. Please contact the sources for current prices, information about shipping and handling, and questions about the contents of the material. Full names and addresses of sources are given beginning on page 33.

Items listed in this circular are not part of the National Library Service for the Blind and Physically Handicapped program, and listing does not imply endorsement. Additional sources may be available in your state from local chapters of national organizations, state agencies for vocational rehabilitation and blindness, the school for the blind, and the public library.
